

Clinician

London Family Court Clinic is looking for a Clinician to join our multi-disciplinary clinical supports program. This team provides services to high-risk and high-needs adolescents (aged 12 to 18) within local out-of-home residential settings, in the community and within youth justice sites, including London probation.

Qualifications:

- candidate must hold a Master's degree in psychology, social work, or a related discipline; preference given to those applicants with relevant clinical experience
- preferred candidates are registered (or qualify to become registered in near future) with the College of Social Workers or the College of Registered Psychotherapists of Ontario (CRPO) or another accredited professional regulating body
- competencies in cognitive behavioural therapy and dialectical behavioural therapy are an asset, along with skill in providing individual, family and group counselling services
- ability to develop treatment interventions within residential and community settings
- experience in providing counselling services to high-risk youth identified as having criminal involvement, trauma histories, addiction issues and inappropriate sexual behaviour
- strong communication and consultation skills with youth, families and other professionals
- knowledge of adolescent mental health services and relevant legislation
- ability to deliver service in French is an asset
- ability to occasionally work flexible hours
- a valid driver's license and regular access to a reliable car

Start Date: as soon as possible

Type of employment: Flexible employment opportunity – beginning with a 2 year term– full/or part time

Compensation Type: Salary Commensurate with experience and education

Apply by email to: Elizabeth.Lam@lfcc.on.ca with "Clinician Position" in the subject line (pdf or word documents only please) as soon as possible

Inclusion and Equal Opportunity Employment

We encourage applications from persons of all backgrounds and abilities that feel they are a good match for this work. "Don't meet every single requirement? At LFCC/NavOn we are dedicated to building a diverse, inclusive and authentic workplace, so if you're excited about this role but your past experience doesn't align perfectly with every qualification in the job description, we encourage you to apply anyways. You may be just the right candidate for this or other roles."

No phone calls please.